Dear President Trump:

Since April 28, 2019, Kansas has experienced heavy rainfall and harmful storms that have resulted in a significant portion of the state experiencing catastrophic flooding and tornado damage. Tragically, three lives have been lost, 56 reported injuries have been suffered, property has been devastated and several communities were evacuated. I do not remember a time when the combination of flooding and tornadoes in my state has been so severe.

Governor Kelly requests that you approve a major disaster declaration providing Public Assistance to 63 Kansas counties. The federal government will play a critical role in supplementing already strained state and local resources as communities work to recover from substantial infrastructure damage. I urge your timely approval of this request. Additional federal assistance is urgently needed to aid the recovery effort.

Mr. President, thank you for your timely consideration of this important matter. Please feel free to call on me if I can be of assistance.

Sincerely,

Jerry Moran
United States Senator
